FISH Volunteer Expectations

In cooperation with faith groups, businesses, and community members it is the mission of FISH Food Bank to help alleviate hunger by distributing food regularly on an emergency basis, regardless of gender, race, religion, or sexual orientation and in a friendly, instant, sympathetic and helpful, nonjudgmental, and confidential manner.

Acting as a volunteer for FISH Food Bank, I recognize the following guiding principles and agree to follow them:

- ▶ Food is distributed on an emergency basis, regardless of race, religion, or sexual orientation.
- ▶ FISH is an acronym for Friendly, Instant, Sympathetic, and Help. We strive to serve our clients in a respectful manner at all times.
- ▶ It is our general procedure to serve clients every 30 days, but we do not turn away clients if they come sooner than 30 days. There are no federal or state regulations that state emergency food can only be given every 30 days.
- ▶ We strive to alleviate hunger and socioeconomic problems of food insecurity by providing a medium for cooperation with faith groups, community members, and businesses.

(Please turn over)

Confidentiality Agreement

As a volunteer at FISH Food Bank you may encounter people from the community that you know or have access to records of the people receiving food assistance. It is the policy of this organization that all information about clients is strictly confidential and stays within the walls of the pantry. Also, any information or knowledge you may have about a client's life or situation is not to be brought to the attention of other volunteers at the pantry.

To protect the privacy and dignity of the people we serve, we ask that you acknowledge and affirm your intent to keep all information regarding clients confidential and that you will not share any information about clients outside the pantry.

What I hear and observe about clients, staff or other volunteers while volunteering here will remain confidential. I agree to protect the privacy of client information I am given access to. I agree to keep this information in the strictest confidence and the failure to do so may result in my being denied the opportunity to volunteer.

I have read, understand and agree to the above FISH Volunteer Expectations and Confidentiality Agreement. I understand that any action on my part that contradicts the above may result in being denied the opportunity to volunteer.
